CD75:693-4. This is new to me. Thought I had everything on Alice. He is in the WDSU film, chunky, dark shirt. Note: "either four or five men walking toward front entrance" ITM. This is more than other accounts, but consistent with the one I got from the Fiat mechanic at Foreign Imports, JB. Vale's company. I think his name is Gomez. I gave you memo on this. Except for the goatee, the extra man is consistent with Core's description, including short (Steele was wearing cutdowns, I know, and I've seen no other shorts in film.) This cannot be right in saying Core was with Alice at beginning, because Core was called back from lunch. You have memo on this also. Core immediately called deBrueys, as I recall. Note that the second reference does not reduce the number of men. Question: is the error normal or of design? And is Alice certain of the number with LHO? I believe Core thinks he recalls at least one Latin.
